He was a member of Local 16 Bricklayers and Allied Craftworkers, which he joined in 2006. “ May you hold your loved ones close today. Tell them you love them everyday. they could be taken in a blink of an eye. Things happen so fast. Life isn't fair and I can't find a reasoning for this. Prayers and hugs to your family. They are going to need it today and everyday after this. Your girls have the best guardian angel they could ask for. May your family find some kind of peace.
